A culinary & cultural adventure
in Ireland

August 25–September 2, 2026

ONWARD TRAVEL ✈️
EST 2014

Ireland has long been one of Onward Travel's favorite destinations, ever since co-owner Molly Crist spent a few months in 2008 interning at Ballymaloe Cookery School. Ireland has a wonderful food culture thanks to the fertile, mild maritime climate (a gardener's dream!) and a strong commitment to farm to table. Artisan producers have centuries of culinary tradition that we'll taste as we enjoy smoked fish, farmhouse cheeses, fresh breads, distillations, and so much more.

Join an optional pre-tour in Dublin or fly into Shannon, as the tour begins in County Clare for easy access to the spellbinding Cliffs of Moher. Travel counterclockwise to Killarney, for three nights on the Iveragh Peninsula to take in breathtakingly beautiful scenery and a bit of Irish music. The next part of the tour is spent in County Cork, a highlight being a hands-on class at Darina Allen's Ballymaloe Cookery School and a three-night stay at landmark country inn, Ballymaloe House.

In Ireland, the windswept and picturesque craggy coastlines give way to green, lush countryside. It's a refreshing and wonderful place to immerse yourself in. Warm Irish hospitality, lovely hotels, and beautiful views combine for an unforgettable adventure.

Welcome to the Land of Smiles

DAY 1: TUESDAY AUGUST 25

- Explore medieval Ennis on a stopover in County Clare
- Toast your traveling companions ~ Sláinte!

Our tour will start today in beautiful County Clare. Fly into the convenient Shannon Airport and you're just 20 minutes from our first home away from home: The Old Ground Hotel. It's an elegant, comfortable hotel, perfect for weary travelers! Alternatively, arrive early to Dublin for the pre-tour, see page 6.

Fit in some R&R and stretch your legs, too. This afternoon, take a stroll into Ennis at your leisure. Ennis dubs itself "The Friendliest Town in Ireland" and is located on the River Fergus. For our group's first delightful meal together, we'll have a 3-course dinner at the hotel's charming restaurant.

Irish Inspiration

DAY 2: WEDNESDAY AUGUST 26

- Feel tiny and inspired at the Cliffs of Moher
- Visit the Burren: the only place in the world where Arctic, Alpine, and Mediterranean plants grow side-by-side

Enjoy a nice breakfast spread before we set off for the Cliffs of Moher. The Cliffs are absolutely striking: reaching over 700 feet above the Atlantic ocean. Some of the best views in the world, no doubt. There's also an excellent walking path for those looking to get their steps in and see the Cliffs from another vantage point.

We'll also visit the Burren, a unique and striking region known for its vast limestone landscape, rare plants, ancient archaeology, and dramatic coastal scenery. Burren National Park is home to the most otherworldly landscape in Ireland... and a chocolate shop, Hazel Mountain Chocolate, we'll pop by there!

Late afternoon we're back to Ennis and you may spend the evening as you please. Enjoy one of the town's nice restaurants or catch some music at a lively pub.

To Killarney We Go!

DAY 3: THURSDAY AUGUST 27

- Savor afternoon tea in Adare, dubbed "Ireland's Prettiest Village"
- Stroll the shore of Lough Leane, the largest of Killarney's lakes

Today we head south to the absolutely iconic County Kerry. Before reaching Killarney, we'll stop in Adare, a picturesque and high-end village where you can enjoy some time strolling and shopping. For lunch, we'll partake in a classic afternoon tea served on collected vintage china. How refined!

Early evening, arrive in Killarney, a charming town where there are numerous shops, restaurants, pubs, and hiking opportunities to enjoy. We're staying just outside town at The Lake Hotel, a 131-room hotel that has been owned by the same family for over 100 years. Your room will have a beautiful view of Lake Leane, and the hotel is adjacent to Killarney National Park. This evening we'll enjoy a gourmet dinner at the hotel.

Ring of Kerry Highlights

DAY 4: FRIDAY AUGUST 28

- Be thoroughly entertained watching a sheep herding demo
- Admire the talent of world-class Irish dancers

Enjoy a slow morning, then have your camera at-the-ready because today we are seeing some lovely sights. First Muckross House and Gardens, a nineteenth-century Victorian mansion and estate poised along the shore of Muckross Lake in Killarney National Park. The azaleas and rhododendrons should still be in bloom. We'll stroll the beautiful grounds and then you're on your own to grab a bite in the quick service garden restaurant.

From there, we'll drive counterclockwise to take in the most prized views from the Ring of Kerry (without driving the entire ringroad). First, Moll's Gap (a mountain pass with views for days!), and then a sheep farm, home to over 1000 sheep where we'll enjoy a sheepdog demonstration and see sheep being shorn. Then, Ladies View, a sweeping, elevated lookout offering stunning vistas over the lakes of Killarney framed by mountains. And lastly, the 20 meter Torc Waterfall!

After a full day taking in the most beautiful views, enjoy a quick respite before a group dinner at a local pub. And the day's fun isn't over yet because tonight we're attending Celtic Steps. Incredibly talented Irish dancers and musicians put on this toe tapping show that features an assortment of wonderful Irish music.

A Scenic Emerald Isle Day

DAY 5: SATURDAY AUGUST 29

- Take in Killarney National Park from a horse-drawn cart and a boat
- Sip a pint of whatever's on draught in the pubs

Mid morning let's head to "Kate's Cottage" to meet a jaunting car for a captivating journey through the Gap of Dunloe, a picturesque narrow mountain pass. The jaunting car is actually a horse-drawn cart and the driver will share interesting stories during the 7 km scenic ride. Enjoy a break for lunch at Lord Brandon's cottage in the Killarney National Park before continuing on for a lovely boat journey through the lakes, surrounded by the rugged McGillicuddy Mountain Range. End back at Ross Castle, exhilarated!

The rest of the afternoon and evening is yours to enjoy as you please. It's a great evening to have a pub crawl for those so inclined!

The Scenic Route to West Cork

DAY 6: SUNDAY AUGUST 30

- Tick an item off your bucket list: kiss the Blarney Stone
- Feel transported to another world at Ballymaloe House

After a delightful stay in Killarney, it's time to travel on. You can't visit Ireland without kissing the Blarney Stone, the stone of eloquence, to attain the gift of gab. The castle is beautiful and the spiral staircase and precarious lean backwards to kiss the stone make great memories. The extensive gardens and massive gift shop are fun, too! Enjoy exploring all on offer as you have free time to wander and enjoy lunch on your own.

Now we head to the rural West Coast, a dreamy region for food enthusiasts. We'll stay at the Ballymaloe House, a country inn that has inspired and supported food artisans for decades. Enjoy the inn and relax - croquet, bicycles, a heated pool, a 5-hole golf course, and tennis are all available and included with your stay. Stroll the grounds and admire this iconic Irish hotel and their resplendent gardens. Tonight we'll dine together at the Ballymaloe House Restaurant, enjoying a 5-course dinner that is locally sourced, expertly prepared and so very Irish. It even concludes with a cart of desserts, and yes, you may have a little of everything.

MUCKROSS HOUSE

Cookery School Heaven

DAY 7: MONDAY AUGUST 31

- Walk a craggy cliff overlooking the Atlantic Ocean
- Take a cookery course at world-famous Ballymaloe Cookery School

Savor the morning and enjoy a delicious breakfast in the wonderful Ballymaloe style. Make sure to check out the walled garden and peruse the well curated shop. We'll visit nearby Shanagarry village late morning and pop into a design store/café for a bite to eat, then tour Shanagarry Potters to see the well known Stephen Pearce pottery. Then we'll stretch our legs for the invigorating Ballycotton Cliff Walk, you may also hang back and enjoy the views from the small fishing village. It is beautiful to walk along the cliffs amid the meadow and ocean views.

Mid afternoon we're off for a private hands-on cookery class at Ballymaloe Cookery School, home to a 100-acre organic farm and Darina Allen, Ireland's most important chef and slow food trailblazer. We'll tour the beautiful farm and gardens, enjoy our hands-on intensive class at the world famous cookery school, and take home a packet of recipes. To conclude the class, we'll sit down for a delicious supper enjoying the fruits of our labor.

Meals Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

County Cork Sightseeing

DAY 8: TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 1

- Have a special Irish food experience: lunch at a smokery
- Sip whiskey at the source and hear the origin story

Enjoy another stunning breakfast at Ballymaloe and time to relax at the hotel. We're just half an hour from Cobh, the picture-postcard town where the Titanic made its last port of call. Fittingly, we'll visit the Titanic Museum and take a leisurely stroll along the colorful waterfront.

Midday we're in for a real treat! An educational visit and lunch at Hederman Smoke House, the only traditional timber smoke house in Ireland where they hang Irish Atlantic salmon for cold smoking. We'll learn about this artisan process and feast on a tasting platter lunch of the products available fresh from the smoke house, accompanied by homemade pickles, salads, traditional brown soda bread, buttermilk blini and smoked butter. Yum!

Our final stop is the original home of Jameson Whiskey where we'll have a guided tour of the beautifully restored 19th-century distillery campus, to reveal the art of triple distillation and the heritage of Irish whiskey-making. It's quite impressive to learn every drop of Jameson enjoyed around the world hails from Midleton, Ireland! Yes, we'll taste test, too!

Tonight we'll enjoy a second sparkling dinner at Ballymaloe House. What fun it is to reflect on the week we shared while savoring one last dinner of quintessential farm-to-table Irish country cuisine.

Farewell

DAY 9: WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 2

No activities are planned today. The tour will conclude with a transfer to Cork Int'l Airport for departures and the Cork Railway station for onward travels.

If you'd like a transfer to Dublin (3.5 hours plus stops), that can be arranged, with a captivating pitstop to explore the famous Rock of Cashel, a fortress and ancient royal site of the Kings of Munster. Please inquire! Price will vary depending on the interest. You would want to book a flight departing from Dublin on Thursday Sept. 3.

May the road rise up to meet you!

DUBLIN PRE-TOUR EXTENSION

August 23–25

Our adventure does not include Dublin but you may like to visit this lively and walkable capital city.

Onward Travel has organized a self guided two-night pre tour.

Arrive in the morning on Sunday August 23 and grab a taxi or the Aircoach bus into the city. Stave off the jetlag with a midday walk with Dubliner and foodie, Ann, to nosh around the city trying Irish specialties and learning about the city as you go. This is an entertaining and interactive way to orient to Dublin. Mid afternoon check into Buswells Hotel, your character-ful home base and put those feet up. Dinner ressesies will be made at Hugo's, a classy bistro that is a short walk from the hotel and home to creative and absolutely delicious French-inspired Irish food (dinner not included; order a la carte).

On Monday August 24, start the day at Trinity College where a current student will provide a walking tour of campus and share some of the university's interesting and entertaining history. Then, view the famous illuminated manuscript the Book of Kells, Ireland's national treasure. You're on your own for the rest of the day to check off whatever's on your bucket list. Dublin has some amazing museums, shopping on Grafton Street, distilleries, and so much more! Onward will provide sightseeing suggestions ahead of the tour.

Optional activity: Partake in a cooking class in Ann's home this evening. It's a special opportunity to prepare traditional Irish recipes with a local: soda bread, beef and guinness casserole, colcannon, and Irish coffee! (addt'l $95/person)

On Tuesday August 25 it's time to head east to Ennis to officially start the tour. Your friendly driver/guide will collect you at the hotel and make a day of it! First stop: the Irish National Stud, one of the only thoroughbred breeding farms open to the public. It's a gorgeous place and The Irish Racehorse Experience is very engaging. The second stop will be the Rock of Dunamase, a dramatic limestone outcrop crowned with the ruins of a 9th-century fortress, offering sweeping views over the Laois countryside. A tasty boxed lunch will be provided. Late afternoon you'll arrive in Ennis to commence the tour at the Old Ground Hotel.

Inclusions: 2-nights accommodations at Buswells Hotel, daily breakfast, tour and lunch with Ann, Trinity College tour & Book of Kells admission, minibus transportation to Ennis, Irish National Stud admission, boxed lunch*
